

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY
THE PETER J. TOBIN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
MASTER OF SCIENCE - ACCOUNTANCY

The Master of Science degree in Accountancy is intended to provide students with the specialized technical knowledge in accounting, tax, and auditing that will enable them to enter or advance their careers in the profession of public accountancy or in managerial positions in industry, government and not for profit organizations. Students in the MS in Accountancy program are expected to have an undergraduate or graduate degree in accounting or a related business field.

ACCOUNTING UNDERGRADUATE MAJORS TRACK

NON- ACCOUNTING UNDERGRADUATE MAJORS TRACK

CORE COURSES

3 credits

Introductory and Intermediate
Accounting Principles

CORE COURSES

12 credits

Introductory and Intermediate
Accounting Principles
Advanced Accounting Principles
Cost Administration
Individual Tax Planning

CURRICULUM

12 credits

Advanced Managerial Accounting
Information Technology Auditing
Critique of Accounting Theory
Business Tax Planning

CURRICULUM

12 credits

Advanced Managerial Accounting
Information Technology Auditing
Critique of Accounting Theory
Business Tax Planning

PROFESSIONAL CURRICULUM

18 credits

Internship in Assurance & Attest Services
Controllership
Financial Instruments and Derivatives
Financial Institutions
SEC Accounting Practice
Accounting Information Systems
Analysis of Foreign Financial Statements

PROFESSIONAL CURRICULUM

9 credits

Auditing Problems
Business Combinations and Consolidations
Government & Non-Profit Accounting