

Fall 2005 Faculty Colloquia and Distinguished Speakers Series

Private Dining Room, 12:45 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

September 19

Geoffrey Stone

University of Chicago Law School

Civil Liberties in Wartime

October 17

Charles W. Mooney, Jr.

University of Pennsylvania Law School

Procedure Theory of Bankruptcy

September 26

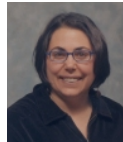

Margaret V. Turano

St. John's University School of Law

Inheritance Laws as a Thwarted Means of Revenge in Wuthering Heights, Or Why the Law Is Never Enough

October 24

Michele Pistone

Villanova Law School

*Rules Are Made to be Broken: Asylum
Seekers and the Culture of Expedited
Removal*

October 3

Joseph P. Liu

Boston College Law School

Bowlerization, Copyright, and Consumer Theory

October 28

Edward J. Imwinkelried

University of California-Davis

*The Alienability of Evidentiary Privileges: Of Property and Evidence, Burden and Benefit,
Hearsay and Privilege*

October 12

Frank Pasquale

Seton Hall Law School

*Why Maximize Expression?: Questioning
the Normative Foundations of Copyright Law*

November 7

Raquel Aldana, William S. Boyd
School of Law (UNLV)

Rule of Law Reform, Access to Justice, and Women's Rights: The Mediation of Domestic Violence in Nicaragua

November 10

Janis Sarra

University of British Columbia Faculty of Law,

Class Act: Considering Race and Gender in the Corporate Board Room